Additional Information:

Batya Feigenbaum is intelligent, outgoing and pretty. She is presently teaching Grades 9 & 10 Bekius, as well as being in charge of Educational Special Projects & Programming. In addition, she is in charge of the semi-annual School Production, and is working on her Bachelors Degree, and plans to go into Social Work within the frum educational system. Batya had a spinal cord injury at birth, rendering her a partial paraplegic. Although she walks with leg braces and crutches, she is extremely independent. She has an electric scooter for day to day use, as well as hand controls on the family car. In high school, she always played an active role in her school's student council, has been involved in school productions and was editor of her Grade 12 yearbook. She has been going to Camp Sternberg for many years, and fully participated in all programs - including their 2-year pioneers program. As a staff member, she has filled various positions including Head Kitchen Staff, Pioneer Counselor, Play Head, Shiur Counselor and most recently, Campus Technical Co-ordinator. Batya is very confident in who and what she is; this shines through in every aspect of her life. She does not view herself as handicapped - and thus, she is not viewed by her peers as handicapped. She has depth and maturity beyond her years, yet she is very down to earth and has a fantastic sense of humor. She is beloved by all her friends and students and has been throughout her entire life. Growing up in a home that is permeated with Torah, hachnosas orchim, warmth and kiruv rechokim, she has grown to be tzanua, yet outgoing, open-minded and worldly. She is well read, and a very real person, whose Yiddishkeit is a product of thought, inner reflection and self honesty. She understands who she is, stands up for what she believes in, and has the ability and courage to articulate and communicate this to others.

Interested In:

Batya is looking for someone who shares her vision of making a real difference in the world of Torah education. While ideally, she is interested in someone who is in the field of kiruv or chinuch, his most important quality is that he must be a true Ben Torah. She needs someone with sincerity, honesty, depth, an open-minded outlook on life, a lot of personality and a healthy sense of humour. It is very important that he have a close relationship with his family, and rebbeim, yet is independent and very responsible, with the inner confidence to do what is right under any circumstances.
